

Engineers' Day celebration-2020

Engineers' Day, celebrated annually on September 15th, is a significant occasion at Mewar University. This day is dedicated to commemorating the birth anniversary of the eminent engineer and visionary, Sir Mokshagundam Visvesvaraya. The event is celebrated with great enthusiasm to honor the contributions of engineers to society and to inspire the budding engineers of Mewar University.

- An impressive display of innovative projects by the university's engineering students was a highlight of the celebration. The projects ranged from smart agricultural solutions to advanced healthcare devices. Faculty members and industry experts evaluated the projects, recognizing and rewarding the most outstanding innovations.
- Cultural Performances: Engineers' Day at Mewar University was not all about technical aspects. Cultural performances, including dance, music, and drama, added color and vibrancy to the event. Students showcased their artistic talents, highlighting the well-rounded development that the university encourages.

FREE HEALTH CHECK UP

28 -11-2020

Mewar university has always put its best foot forward to reach to the unreachable and especially deprived classes of the society. In this context Mewar university opened its doors for providing medical facilities like free doctor consultancy, medicines and first aid for poor people in the nearby village areas.

Dispensary services of Mewar University are available for these people from backward area. Economically weaker section residing in adjoining areas of university campus has welcomed this initiative and is happy with their move.

MU celebrates 73th Independence Day with patriotic fervor

Mewar University celebrated nation's 73th Independence Day with traditional fervor and gaiety in which its students drawn from all corners of India took active part. The occasion was marked by the presence of Chief Guests Shri Govind Lal Ji Gadiya and Shri R.K. Gadiya.

The celebration began, as the national flag was unfurled by Shri Govind Lal Ji Gadiya, Secretary, Mewar Educational Society (MES). All the higher authorities including Dean, OSD, Directors, Deputy Dean and Chief Proctor were present on the occasion. Unfurling of the national flag was followed by singing of national anthem. The march past by SIS guards and students from different states reflected our nation's unity in diversity. A group song from Chemical Dept "Hai Preet Jahan Ki Reet Sada" filled the air with patriotism, and it was followed by a speech of a student.

Shri Govind Lal Ji Gadiya laid emphasis on the significance of having a nationalistic spirit among students who will shape the future of India. He said technology is the driving force today and we cannot afford to be negligent about technical education and research.

The celebration ended with distribution of sweets among students and faculty members.
